Feruni	HR Internal Policy: Revisions to Leave Entitlement Policies
	Version : 2.3	Effective Date: 4 March 2026
	Prepared by	Gwendolyn Poo
	Approved by	Vikram Sukumaran

This serves to document amendments and addendums to the existing policies under ARTICLE 2: LEAVE ENTITLEMENT in the employee handbook:

1. MEDICAL LEAVE

1.1 All employees on medical leave must notify the Head of Department or immediate superior before 9.00 a.m. on the same day.

1.2 All employees are required to apply online through the portal with valid medical certificate and submit to superior for approval within three (3) days upon returning back to work.

1.3 Employees entitled to paid medical leave must obtain valid medical certificate from Company elected panel clinics. In cases where the employee's home is more than 15km radius from the Company's panel clinics, then other private practitioners or government medical officer's medical certificate shall be accepted with valid reason.

2. EMERGENCY LEAVE

2.1 All employees on emergency leave must notify the Head of Department or immediate superior before 9.00 a.m. on the same day.

2.2 All employees are required to apply online through the portal with supporting document and submit to superior for approval with a stated reason within three (3) days from the date of emergency leave taken.

2.3 Emergency leave will be deducted from Annual Leave and shall be limited to four (4) days a year. Exceeded emergency leave will be considered as unpaid leave.

3. ADVANCE LEAVE

3.1 All employees may apply for Advance Leave in the event that they do not have sufficient number of already earned Annual Leave balance. Advance Leave applications would only be granted provided that the employee still has sufficient number of Annual Leave days to be earned until the end of the year.

3.2 Advance leave shall be limited to four (4) days per year.

3.3 Employee applies advance leave by sending an email to their supervisor with the relevant dates and supporting reasons of application with Culture Department (gwendolynpoo@feruni.com) in copy. Once supervisor has replied with their written approval, Culture Department will insert the leave on behalf via administrative access.

4. UNPAID LEAVE

4.1 Unpaid leave shall be granted at the discretion of the Company on application basis where:

4.1.1 an employee has exhausted all annual leave entitlement,

4.1.2 such unpaid leave requested is deemed necessary.

4.2 Application for unpaid leave should be made through the E-Leave system with reason clearly stated. Applications must be made with supporting documentation with exception being leave applied in conjunction with Cultural Festivities such as Hari Raya, Deepavali, Chinese New Year and Christmas.

4.3 Unpaid leave shall be limited to five (5) days per year.

4.4 Unpaid leaves shall be applied in advance as stipulated in the table below:

Duration of Leave Applied	Required Notice
1 Day	Minimum 3 working days in advance
2 Day	Minimum 5 working days in advance
3 Days and above	Minimum 10 working days in advance

5. NON-COMPLIANCE TO LEAVE APPLICATION POLICIES & GUIDELINES

5.1 Any leave taken by employees without due notification to the immediate superior or without subsequent leave application actions in the HR leave system shall be deemed as absenteeism and is considered as negligence by the employee.

5.2 Failure to comply with Company's leave management policies and guidelines will be considered as misconduct and will result in subsequent disciplinary action taken by the Management.
